West Coast Collab

Dru Bru has partnered up with HAAS® to showcase cutting edge technically advanced hop products and the latest hop varieties through a series of limited edition, everchanging West Coast Style IPAs. We'll be sharing our brewing experiences and sending the liquid to select "industry" accounts across the state.

Test #3

Together with Doghaus Brewery, we created a modern take on a West Coast IPA to feature a new experimental hop product from HAAS®. Pomelo Daydream Euphorics is paired with Cascade, Chinook, and Citra hops to bring forth an abundance of citrus aromas. Brewed with Canadian-grown 2-row, American Munich, and Vienna malt to create a pedestal for the hops to shine. This brilliantly golden beer is deeply expressive and layered.
